

“Competitive toughness is an acquired skill and not an inherited gift.”

Chris Evert

BBPS were the proud winners of “Lok Tarang” (Inter school folk Song Competition), which was part of the event “Image” hosted by Cambridge School Noida, with the aim of honing the singing skills of the students. The vivacious BBPS singers set the floor on fire with their energetic performance of a Bengali folk song under the guidance of Ms.Sumana and the wholehearted and unanimous support from the music department. The spectators bore witness to the enthusiasm and energy of the young BBPSians as they enthralled everyone with their performance.

Names of the students	Classes
Atrij Chatterjee	V-A
Anuj Singh	V-C
Smrita Bhardwaj	V-B
Prisha Saini	V-C
Kavya Venkatesh	V-B
Mudit Singh Negi	V-C
Diya Rajan	IV-A
Aishiki Karmakar	IV-B
Shivapriya Balaji	IV-B
Anusha Dubey	IV-D

“Melody and harmony are like lines and colours in pictures”

Rabindranath Tagore