

REPORT ON VISIT TO NATIONAL GALLERY OF MODERN ART, NEW DELHI

In an initiative to commemorate and celebrate the birth anniversary of Amrita Sher-Gil (30th January 1931 – 5th December 1951), 40 Students From Bal Bharati Public School, Noida visited National Gallery of Modern Art, New Delhi on 30th January 2018.

Amrita Sher-Gil was an eminent Hungarian-Indian painter. She has been called “one of the greatest avant-grande women artist of the early 20th century and a “Pioneer” in modern Indian art. It was an enriching experience for the students of classes VII to XI who attended the program ,which included Lecture cum interactive session on Amrita Sher-Gil by Dr. Zoltan Wilhelm, Director, Cultural Counselor, Hungarian Information and Culture Centre, Embassy of Hungary, New Delhi .The session was followed by screening of film titled “Amrita Sher-Gil “ directed by Film Division of India .It was an excellent opportunity for students to experience and learn the world of arts and artists by witnessing the digital exhibition on Amitra Sher-Gil.

*“I can only paint in India. Europe belongs to Picasso, Matisse, Braque India belongs only to me.”
-Amrita Sher-Gil*

*Picture Perfect***

*Engrossed in an interactive session***