

‘CREATIVITY IS THINKING UP NEW IDEAS. INNOVATION IS DOING NEW THINGS.’

(Theodore Levitt)

Bal Bharati Public School, Noida held its 19th Annual Day on 18th November 2017 under the benefaction of the Principal, Smt.Asha Prabhakar.The occasion was graced by Shri Anil Swarup, Secretary Department of Education & Literacy, Ministry of HRD, as the esteemed Chief Guest. Shri Sanjay Jain- Additional Solicitor General of India, Smt.Tavishi Behl Pandey- Under Secretary Foreign Affairs (Myanmar) and Padmashree Geeta Chandran, consented to be the Guests of Honour. The School was privileged to have many other principled dignitaries of the Child Education Society. A heartfelt welcome was extended to all the respectable guests present during the occasion.

A HEARTFELT WELCOME

The programme commenced with ‘Symphony’-A presentation by the School Orchestra. The sound of music aroused by various musical instruments on the Indian Folk Songs resonated all around, leaving the audience mesmerised.

UNFOLDING THE ARTISTIC PROWESS

The programme proceeded to glory after lighting the ceremonial lamp. ‘The Akshayguna Allegory’-Invocation Dance exhibiting several dance forms of Lord Shiva evoked a magical influence on the sea of spectators. The agility of participants as burgeoning dancers received praises unbound.

Spreading the significance of togetherness to craft a euphoric world, an enthralling presentation by the School Choir, ‘Life Despite God’, mushroomed musical notes. The flow of rhythm through medley of songs called for unity and involvement of the entire human race to transmute the world into a habitat of hope and peace.

‘Athak Prayas’-A marionette’s plea for self-determination, was a Pre-Primary Presentation based on the theme of emancipation of souls through puppet dance, to give voice to liberation and self-reliance. The tiny tots veiled as dancing marionette’s overwhelmed the onlookers.

THE CHARISMATIC MARIONETTE’S

The Principal, Smt.Asha Prabhakar presented the Annual Report edifying the achievements of school in all walks of life.

A NOTEWORTHY ADDRESS

UNFORGETTABLE MOMENTS

The students were felicitated for their estimable performance in academics and extra-curricular activities during the Prize Distribution Ceremony.

The Senior School Presentation in reviving the great epic 'Mughal-e-Azam', endeared the audience. The musical drama divulged the unconditional love of Anarkali and Shahzada Salim with such elegance and panache that the audience would reminisce it for long. The acting and dancing prowess of student performers was far beyond eulogy.

UNLEASHING THE DRAMATIC EXCELLENCE

The programme concluded with a Vote of Thanks presented by the Vice-Principal, Smt. Anupama Motwani.

With the conclusion of its 19th Annual Day BBPS, Noida has touched the peak of excellence by proving its competence to unleash the latent talents. It becomes the hub where geniuses reside, fostered and find opportunities to spread their wings to scale heights.

TOGETHER WE MADE A MARK

The journey will resume with an assurance to present another impeccable show next year.
