

REPORT ON FAREWELL CEREMONY

27 December 2017 marked the day class XI students organised a farewell ceremony for the outgoing batch of class XII. Gorgeous girls dressed in attractive sarees and boys in dashing formal suits were welcomed with smiles and lovely cards, with their titles based on their personalities, by their juniors and teachers. At the same time they were asked to vote for their Miss and Master Popular. The event began with the thrilling games organised by class XI students followed by heart warming, melodious songs which made the class XII break out in thunderous applause and cheers. This was followed by scrumptious lunch and the rocking DJ which made everyone jump to their feet. Some students were then presented with special titles. As the evening reached its peak, all the class XII students gracefully walked the ramp flaunting their fashionable dresses. The titles of the best dressed were given to SAUMYA CHAND and RAJAN MENON. Based on the voting, titles of Miss and Master Popular were rightfully won by LAVANYA RAJAN and ARUKAN BANSAL respectively. Then came the most awaited and much coveted award of the evening; the titles for Master and Miss BBPS Noida. These titles were awarded to UTKARSH DEVNANI and ISHITA JAIN of XII C. The outgoing batch thanked their juniors for a memorable evening. All the students captured their precious, nostalgic moments by clicking innumerable photographs. The evening came to an end with students bidding adieu to their teachers, friends and life at BBPS, with smiles on their faces and determination in their hearts.
