

SCREENING OF THE MOVIES

Dear Parents,

In order to promote visual and performing arts among the students the Kiran Nadar Museum of Art has organized a movie festival and will be showcasing the following movies.

1. 'I Am Kalam' is a 2011 Indian film in which a poor boy derives inspiration from the former President of India, A. P. J. Abdul Kalam. He then decides to change his name to Kalam and harbours a dream of meeting the visionary.
2. 'Gattu' is a 2012 Indian film about a 9 year old orphan who works in his uncle's garbage recycling business and is fascinated by Kite flying, specially the black kite Kali which has managed to remain unconquered in the sky till date.

In continuation of our endeavour to expose school children to different experiences for their overall development, the students from classes IV & V will be taken to Kiran Nadar Museum Noida for a special screening of the popular movies as follows:

S.N.	CLASS/SEC	NAME OF MOVIE	DATE
