SYNOPSIS OF THE ACTIVITY CONDUCTED:

Students of classes IX-XII participated in a Window Dressing Competition held on 12th May 2017 in Bal Bharati Public School, Noida. The ultimate agenda of giving such a competition was to inspire the fellow students to not only try something other than the basic sketching and painting on a plain paper but also so that this generation learns how to break out of the common stereotypes associated with artists. This era forces one to come out of their comfort zone and that is exactly what we want to prepare them for.
