Content of the Workshop Seminar –

The session started with an introduction of the resource person along with the teachers who attended the workshop. It was a two-day workshop which was taken by the master facilitators of the RamaKrishna Mission under the expert guidance of their training coordinator Ms. Manjira On the first day a group of teachers was addressed by different facilitators where they explained the various real-life situations and the different ways in which we deal with those situations. On the second day the entire group was divided into six small groups in which the same thing that was taught and explained was now demonstrated by the teachers.

1. Learning outcomes (Knowledge and Information) from the workshop Seminar?

The main approach of the programme is to expand the vision of oneself from a narrow and limited individual to a broad and expanded personality, encompassing the community, the nation and the world. In today's world many children are stressed and confused because they are not armed with the right tools to face real-life problems and to make the right choices. To bridge this gap, the teachers are trained as they are the best mentors and guides to align and put a child's mind on the right path and make them realize their complete potential with intrinsic greatness. Learning through 'self-discovery' is the best tool that a teacher can arm their student with. With innate spirituality of immense goodness; student merely requires to be shown an illumined path leading to exploration of hidden qualities.

2. Which topics or aspects of the workshop/Seminar did you find most interesting or useful and can be applied to the classroom teaching?

□Inside each one of us, there is a source of infinite strength□. This was beautifully portrayed through an 8-minute film which showed the various Human Possibilities. The entire workshop was quite lively and informative with the enthusiastic audience of the well trained and experienced teachers from different schools of Delhi and NCR who interacted well with the erudite faculty and ended up gaining more information to make the future citizens of our country awakened and enlightened. All modules were well-explained through short videos taken from the real-life experiences of Swami Vivekananda that kept all of us engrossed into the new findings which motivated us to welcome these teachings into our classroom discussions.

3. How will you implement the knowledge & techniques acquired to your subject?

As Swami Vivekananda quoted;

Education is the manifestation of the perfection already in Man.

To foster this thought, keeping in view the 'universal possibilities' and 'unique possibilities' which every individual already has. Learning by doing is the most effective way of teaching as it makes learners to stumble upon discovering the immense potential that they inhibit; additionally, it will add up to their self-confidence and hence, effectively creating a harmonious and a wholesome personality. Laying down different thought provoking situations upon learners, will trigger their cognitive aspect, therefore, bringing out pool of different solutions to overcome that hurdle.

4. Comments and suggestions (How do you think the workshop/Seminar could have been made more effective?)

The workshop was an enriching and an enlightening experience for hands on learning. Activity modules demonstrated were comprehensive, informative and useful for class room. Short videos enabled to develop more interest in the assimilation of objectives. However, first day of the workshop was purely theoretical which became little tedious in the last two hours. If the workshop was extended for one more day, then it could have been an extremely successful programme. Second day was a 'presentation activity' day, which proved fruitful as it enhanced teacher's skills to become an ideal facilitator.

5. Was the advance briefing about the workshop/Seminar appropriate? YES
