Learn about a fun and interesting AI experiment by Google called Google AutoDraw. AutoDraw makes it much easier to draw common items. AutoDraw automatically recognizes what you're trying to draw and recommends shapes for you to select and place on the canvas. It's interesting to see how the AI engine shows you recommendations based on your rough drawing.

Visit these links to learn more about autodraw: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=z0Y1zPoHZ8k> & <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=VwRbvVrUXTc>

You all must be familiar with comic strips. It's time to be a digital story teller by designing your own story. Weave a moral story around Internet Security or Cyber Crime. Use Autodraw to design your scenes one by one and save them individually. Using Spark Video online on spark.adobe.com, create a video of these scenes to complete your story. Give an appropriate title to your story. Make sure the ending is a happy one and your story gives a message to be safe online.

Students to mail the link of their Spark Graphics AD to it.hw@nd.balbharati.org latest by 10 Jan 2020. The best story will find a place in the annual school journal.
