

Bal Bharati
PUBLIC SCHOOL

Sector – 21, Noida
Phone : 0120-2534064, 2538533 / E-mail : bbpsnd@yahoo.co.in
Website : <http://bbpsnoida.balbharati.org>

INDEPENDENCE DAY ASSEMBLY

"Ask not what the country can do for you, Ask what you can do for the country."

-Jawaharlal Nehru

Bal Bharati Public School, Noida held its special assembly on the threshold of the 73rd Independence Day amongst the pre -primary, primary, middle and senior school audience to commemorate the auspicious and solemn occasion of the Independence Day and paying tribute to the Kargil War heroes.

In continuation to the patriotic fervour, the School Principal Mrs Asha Prabhakar along with the Head Boy and Head Girl unfurled the Nation Flag followed by the National Anthem and the foot tapping patriotic numbers.

It was followed by a melodious medley of four songs in regional dialects of Kashmir, Bengal, Rajasthan & Punjab. The audience was mesmerized as the singers of the primary wing sang with full fervour. After the choir the enthralling sounds of bagpipes and drums caught the attention as the school band made its way through the audience. As the band marched past, the young protégé of Hon'ble Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi from the pre-primary wing captured attention of all who witnessed it. The audience also got the chance to learn the new ABC of nationalism.

The Head Boy, Parth Jaiswal took away all the applause as he delivered his views on women who are not only the hope and pillars but also the architects of the society. After the speech came the much awaited play in the form of a face-to-face, highlighting the reorganisation of the state on linguistic basis.

To bring in a change and to share his enlightened thoughts the President, Students' Council, Gaurav Choudhary, put forward a powerful melange of words and expressed his vision of a new India.

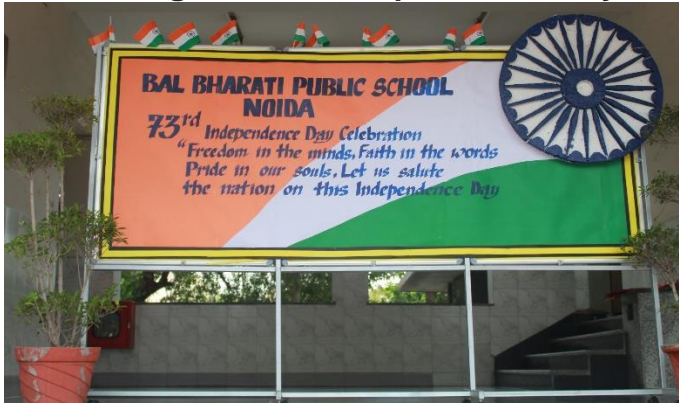

The audience was educated through a talk show on the revoking of Article 370 with its impact on Jammu and Kashmir, then and now.

After the talk came a spectacular dance performance dedicated to the valour and strength of the armed forces through the rejuvenating tunes of 'Ae Watan' and 'Rang De Basanti', filling everyone top-to-toe with pride.

In keeping with the thought of Keeping India green, the young brigade with the Principal planted saplings with a promise to nurture nature.

Before signing off for the day, distribution of sweets took place with the pledge to spear ahead with the dreams of New India.

Celebrating the 73rd Independence Day

Unfurling the Tri colour

Glimpses of the Celebration

Planting Saplings – Pledging for A Greener Tomorrow

