Date : 04 Oct, 2019

"It's not how much we give but how much love we put into giving"

'The Joy of Giving Week' now known as Daan Utsav, is India's own Festival of Giving observed from 2nd October to 8th October, in which the Interact Club of Bal Bharati Public School, Noida participates every year. With a view of imbibing the values of sharing, caring and reusing in our young generation, this gives an opportunity to involve your ward in a very meaningful act of gratitude.

Materials like toys and stationery (in working condition), biscuits and packed food items will be shared by the students with their less privileged friends. The bank is already open and waiting for the joyous contribution. The collected contribution will be handed over to the concerned authorities so that it reaches the needy.

Your ward can give his/ her contribution to the class teacher for the gift hamper.

Let your child come out to help and learn the joy of giving, which is the true art of living.
