Circular No.88/2017-18

Date : 02 Feb, 2018

ONLY FOR CLASS-IX & X (FMM STUDENTS)

Dear Parents,

As intimated earlier, the students of Classes IX & X studying FMM as a sixth subject are required to appear for National Skills Qualification Framework (NSQF - Level I & II) online examination to be conducted at the National Stock Exchange, New Delhi end of the academic session (2017-18).

Those students qualifying theory as well as practical examination with a minimum of 33% marks and NSQF – Level I & II online examination with a minimum of 50% marks will be awarded a joint certificate from CBSE and National Stock Exchange (NSE) upon the declaration of CBSE Class-X results.

It is mandatory for the students to qualify theory, practical and level I & II NSQF online examination in order to be eligible for the joint certification.

It is to reiterate that Financial Skills in 21st century are as important as Computer Skills. It empowers a person to make informed judgements and decisions regarding the use and management of money. Students planning to pursue Banking and Financial sector as a career will definitely have an extra edge over other students after qualifying the above mentioned examinations.

It is a humble request to the parents as well as FMM students to take the aforesaid examinations seriously and remain present on the scheduled dates.
