VISIT TO ZOO
CLASS : IV

EACH AND EVERY ANIMAL ON EARTH HAS AS MUCH RIGHT TO BE HERE AS YOU AND ME

Dear Parent,

In continuation of our endeavour to expose school children to different experiences for their overall development, it is proposed to organise an Educational trip to Delhi zoo for students of Class IV on 15th July 2017, Saturday. This visit has been planned to provide them an authentic and developmental platform to discover, explore and learn about the different types of Flora and Fauna exhibited there.

The Delhi zoo boasts of housing many endangered species and their conservational breeding like Sloth Bear, Manipur Brow Antlered Deer, Black Buck, Lion Tailed Macaque, Leopard, Crocodile, Royal Bengal Tiger and many species of snakes sprawling over an area of 71 hectare amidst urban Delhi near the Old Fort.

This is indeed a unique opportunity for your ward to participate and contribute in this ISA activity.

Please note that the trip to Delhi Zoo is an optional visit and NOT a mandatory visit.

Last date for submission of consent form is 13 July, 2017.
