SYNOPSIS OF THE ACTIVITY CONDUCTED:

Moot court involves appellate cases or cases/petitions directly filed in the High court or Supreme Court. One team comprising two speakers were selected from each house. Each team was required to present the case either from petitioner or respondent side, adhering to the time (10 mins) allotted to them. According to the results of preliminary round, two finalist teams were selected and on the basis of coin toss between them, the winning team started the pleading by choosing the side they want to represent in the final round. After hearing arguments from both sides, the judge announced the winner.
