

VISIT TO SHANKAR'S INTERNATIONAL DOLLS MUSEUM
CLASS : PRE PRIMARY- II
(ISA ACTIVITY – ‘KINGDOM OF DOLLS’)

Dear Parents,

• In order to promote awareness and to expose the children to the wonderful world of dolls, a recreational trip to the Shankar's International Dolls Museum, Nehru House Bahadur Shah Zafar Marg, Delhi has been organized by the school on 29 April 17 (Saturday). Dolls Museum is one the most renowned museums in New Delhi which has a huge collection of dolls from across the globe. The museum has 6,500 exhibits from almost 85 countries, adding to its international character.

- Wearing of Identity Card with School Uniform is mandatory.
- The students will be escorted by the school staff. Parents are requested to drop and pick up their ward as per the given timings.

Reporting in School : 08.00 a.m.
Pick up from school : 12.30 p.m.

• In order to make the visit a truly memorable experience, the visiting students will do the following activity as a part of their Summer Holiday Homework :

(i) Making a doll using waste materials such as ice cream cups, plastic water bottles, ice cream sticks etc. and dressing it up in the traditional costume of the country allotted to respective class/section of Pre Primary-II.

- Request fill in the consent form and submit the same latest by 24 Apr, 2017 to the concerned class teachers.
