Adaptation is the ability to adjust to a new environment and gain new experiences. Through adaptation, behaviour that allows us to cope with ever-evolving, ever-learning, change is adopted in a smooth manner.

This year, the experience was completely different as the facilitators had to hold the attention of the young brigade on a 'Virtual' platform. The biggest challenge being to keep the children engaged in a fun filled manner while not compromising on the learning part too. The Pre-Primary Department of Bal Bharati Public School, Noida, earmarked the first two weeks of the session as the Adaptation Period beginning from 5th to 16th April 2021 through various fun filled activities, creating a healthy environment for learning and making the child happy and stress free.

The children were introduced to age-appropriate multifarious activities and opportunities like introducing oneself through a name game activity, art and craft activities, dance, fun games, riddles, how to take care of themselves, greeting with Namaskar, setting mindful practices for social emotional learning.

Some creative pursuits undertaken were making creative headgears, walking and making sounds of different animals & birds, talking about their favourite toys and many more. Students were encouraged to express their interpretation of the stories narrated to them to expand their horizons in their quest for Education for Life and enhance their knowledge, skills and attitudes.

The culmination of the Adaptation Period was an entertaining Puppet Show which further helped the children to start enjoying the class activities and getting used to the Pre-Primary routine.

PARENT TESTIMONIALS

The first week passed wonderfully mam...I was little scared as Aarohi might be taught books things straightaway but to my delight nothing of that sort happened...

In her previous school Little Angels Aarohi loved rhymes and creative activities so this is a continuation for her...

I hope and wish this beautiful journey continues and Aarohi keeps enjoying it to the hilt...

Dear ma'am,
Siddhi enjoyed the activity and followed all your instructions. It seems impossible for us to follow virtual activities, but the way you conduct, kids find it as a fun game and enjoy as well.

Thanks ma'am.
P/O Siddhi PS B

It is really commendable how you manage all the children, on this virtual platform....converting our homes into classroom. Thank you so much ma'am for your efforts and love towards our little one.
