“You can’t use up creativity. The more you use the more you have.” – Maya Angelou

Being creative is the foundation of good work. It is what makes a person independent, confident and imaginative. Creativity drives the best in students too, therefore, we at Bal Bharati Public School, Noida encourage all our students to think, practice and complete their tasks creatively. For us, an art makes children learn better. It is the medium to express their creativity. So, in every task that we assign our students, we ensure art integration and complete participation of all our students.
