KNOW MORE ABOUT GAUTAM BUDDH NAGAR

Dear Parents,

"Knowledge will bring you the opportunity to make a difference." — Claire Fagin

In this endeavor, to make our tiny tots self aware and impart knowledge about their immediate surroundings, we have chosen the topic "Know More About Gautam Buddh Nagar" as part of our Winter Holiday Homework. This project essentially focuses on our very own district, 'Gautam Buddh Nagar'. We urge you to help your child have a better understanding of the district and city they reside and know more about it's history and heritage. Capture your child's precious and special moments via photographs and videos while they engage themselves in a plethora of activities mentioned in the Winter Holiday Homework latest by 15th January 2022.

PS: Video links are provided for each activity for your perusal and reference. We would request you not to go out away from the safe comfort of your home to buy any material. Alternatives used that are readily available at home will be appreciated.

A quiz will be held on 26th January 2022 for all the students based on the information gained while undertaking the activities. Winners will be awarded with attractive prizes.

Hamlets of Mythological Significance

Bisrakh, a village that lies in Greater Noida, derives its name from Vishrava, Ravana's father. It is believed that this is the village where Ravana spent his childhood days. One of the temples, commonly known as Ravana ka Mandir, houses a Linga, which is believed to have been earthed by Ravana himself.

Dankaur also known as Dronacharya Nagar, named after the great saint Guru Dronacharya, belongs to Gautam Buddh Nagar district of Uttar Pradesh. Eklavya considered saint Dronacharya as his guru and made a stone statue of Dronacharya and learned the skill of archery. Even now the stone statue of saint Dronacharya is preserved at the ancient temple of Dronacharya.

Activity: Find out about Eklavya from the Epic Mahabharata, imbibe his good values and devotion towards his guru.
