'Folktale is a mirror of society'

Folktales are an intrinsic part of the social and cultural capital and provide a holistic approach to personality and nation building which is required to bring about sustainable development and national integration among children.

The narration of folktales in the educational curriculum results in positive, cognitive, and competitive growth of the young mind that can induce problem-solving and logical thinking skills. Folktales have the magic that affects the person positively by developing self-awareness, self-confidence, knowledge, and a new way to look at life. Folktales also can make children feel that they share common experiences and emotions, which brings them together, help them become familiar with one another, strengthens their bonds, and promotes community living.

The culture of narrating folktales in the classrooms should be revived at all costs since it entertains, engages, and teaches moral values to children at all levels. By experiencing stories from different cultures, children can discover valuable insights into other cultures' values, beliefs, history, practices, and customs. Children's outlook and horizon broaden manifold when they learn about diverse cultural traditions.

Keeping the above in mind, it's our pleasure and privilege to invite the multi-skilled and talented storytellers of your prestigious institution, to ESPRIT' - A PRE PRIMARY INTER SCHOOL FESTIVAL. The theme for the vibrant festival is – 'FOLK LORES –THE TALES UNTOLD'.

We look forward to the enthusiastic participation of your students and make this event, a truly exciting and enriching experience for one and all.

Best wishes,

Yours sincerely,

Asha Prabhakar
