PARUL DALSUKHBHAI PARMAR

Parul Dalsukhbhai Parmar is an Indian para-badminton player from Gujarat. She had been ranked world number one in para-badminton women's singles.

Parmar was born on 20 March 1973 in Gandhinagar, Gujarat. She was diagnosed with Poliomyelitis when she was three years old and in the same year she fell from a swing while playing, resulting in a fractured collar bone and right leg. The injury took a long time to heal. Her father was a state-level badminton player and would go to a local badminton club to practice. She also started going to the club with her father and started developing interest in the game. She also began playing badminton with neighbour kids. A local coach, Surendra Parekh, noticed her talent in the sport and encouraged her to play more seriously.

She won the golds in women's singles and doubles at the 2017 BWF Para-Badminton World Championships.

Parmar was awarded the Arjuna Award in 2009.

The Govt. of India has awarded her 'National Role Model Award' in the year 2006 by Hon'ble President, Shri APJ Abdul Kalam.

Eklavya Award by the Government of Gujarat
