DEPARTMENT: PRE PRIMARY

BAL SABHA ACTIVITY REPORT

" YEH MERA INDIA" (COLLAGE ON NATIONAL SYMBOLS)

Classes: Pre School & Pre Primary

Venue: Classrooms

Date: 03.08.22

An activity titled "Yeh Mera India" was conducted in the class to raise awareness about National Symbols of India. The Class Teachers initiated the activity by explaining the children about our National Symbols and their significance.

After the discussion, the teacher provided the children with an outline of 6 National Symbols – National Flower (Lotus), National Animal (Tiger), National Fruit (Mango), National Flag (Tiranga), National Tree (Banyan Tree) and National Bird (peacock). The children did 'tearing and pasting' in the outline of the National Symbols using coloured paper. The Teacher collected the creative work of the students and designed a collage which was displayed on the class board.

Learning Outcomes:

- ❖ The activity increased the awareness of children regarding National Symbols.
- ❖ The fine motor skills of children were developed.
- ❖ The creativity and aesthetic sense of the children improved.
