

INTERNATIONAL GIRL CHILD DAY (11 OCT, 2020)

"Our Time is Now – Our Rights, Our Future"

"We need to uphold the equal rights, voices and influence of girls in our families, communities and nations. Girls can be powerful agents of change, and nothing should keep them from participating fully in all areas of life."
– UN Secretary-General António Guterres

With the International Day of the Girl just round the corner i.e. 11 October, 2022, here are some fun and simple ways to show your support for gender equality and celebrate girls' rights!

CLASS AND DATE OF SUBMISSION	ACTIVITY	DESCRIPTION OF THE ACTIVITY	TEACHER INCHARGES	MODE OF SUBMISSION OF REPORT
I - III	Video watch on Gender Equality	A discussion will be carried out between the teacher and students followed by screening of a video. https://youtu.be/SqFdiaGGAMA	Class Teachers and Reps.	Photograph
IV - V	"Udaan - Sapnon Ki"	Students will share his/her dream of what they want to become when they grow up and why.	Class Teachers and Reps.	Submission as word document along with his/her photograph with their name, class and Section
VI - VIII	Competition Named 'Date Stamp of the Girl Child Day'	Best Stamp will be selected and we all will replace our profile photo with the selected stamp. To show we support girl's rights.	Ms Samra R	Stamp with their details and photograph
IX - XII	Share what a #Brighter Future for girls means to you	Show the world your support for girl's rights! Post an original picture of a girl that inspires you on the Facebook, Twitter or Instagram and tag BBPS Noida, letting us know what a brighter future for girls means to you and what you're doing to support it. Tag your photos and messages with the hashtag # Brighter Future and your post could appear on our virtual wall.	Mr Niladri Ms Shally Walia	Screen Shots

Give a girl the right shoes, and she can conquer the world

All the incharges are requested to send the best entries of all the activities to the Coordinator by 15 October, 2022 for further compilation.
