

CELEBRATION OF R K NARAYAN WEEK (10 OCT – 15 OCT, 2022)

“He that loves reading has everything within his reach” – William Godwin

The National Education Policy 2020 has emphasized reading as a key skill for foundational learning, which aims to improve reading literacy among the students. In an endeavour to nurture reading habits school is celebrating literary week by commemorating great authors and their works. 10 October is remembered in the history of literature as the birthday of the great Indian author R K Narayan.

Rasipuram Krishnaswami Iyer Narayanaswami was an Indian writer known for his work set in the fictional South Indian town of Malgudi. He was a leading author of early Indian literature in English. Among the best-received of Narayan's 34 novels are The English Teacher (1945), Waiting for the Mahatma (1955), The Guide (1958), The Man-Eater of Malgudi (1961), The Vendor of Sweets (1967), and A Tiger for Malgudi (1983).
