"Manpower without unity is not a strength unless it is harmonized and united properly, then it becomes a spiritual power."- Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel

Rashitrya Ekta Diwas serves as a reminder to Indian citizens of the struggles and sacrifices Sardar Patel and other activists made to inspire unity.

To mark the 144th birth anniversary of the freedom fighter, the Iron man, Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel; Bal Bharati Public School, Noida, observed National Unity Day on 31st October 2022 with great fervour and enthusiasm. The aim was to bring the faculty and support staff together to strengthen the unity for the wellbeing of all.

The essence of the day was highlighted by conducting different sports events for the Faculty and support staff of the school. The celebration commenced with a friendly Throw Ball match between the two teams. The most gripping activity was rope skipping which was taken up with a great zeal by all.

Other numerous activities of the day included 100-meter race, Aiming the Target, Volleyball and Cricket match. The synergic efforts reflecting unity and harmony was distinctly evident in all the activities.

The school ground was full of life and witnessed untiring participation.

Mrs Asha Prabhakar, the school Principal, appreciated the event organised by the sports department. She addressed that such celebrations strengthen the bond of unity amongst all.

The event culminated with a note of gratitude by Vice Principal, Mrs Anupama Motwani, followed by felicitation ceremony wherein the winners were awarded with gold, silver and bronze medals respectively.

"We have to shed mutual quarrelling, shed the difference of being high or low, build the spirit of equality, and abolish untouchability."- Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel
