"Dancing is the poetry of the foot."

-John Dryden

Dance is always fun and enjoyable, and the greater benefits related to both physical mental health make the activity more appealing. Primary students got to be the part of this rhythmic event, where many young dancers showcased their talent on various songs.

Students of classes II and III were the part of this joyous event. The enthusiasm portrayed by the little dancers was outstanding. Through the event many talented students were recognized and were given guidance for future participation. The preliminary round encouraged all the students to participate and two dancers from each house were selected in every section. Semi final round provided us with 17 finalists from class II and 8 finalists from class III. The final round was a blockbuster event, and all the finalists danced their heart out.

Result of the final round:
