AIPPM

Agenda: Deliberation on secularism in India with emphasis on recent developments

AIPPM while not being an actual committee is derived from Political Parties Meet which may be called by the speaker or the PM to discuss the agenda of the Lok Sabha. It is a committee with heated debates and backroom dealings. Secularism is a fundamental principle of our constitution that guarantees equal respect and freedom for all religions. However, this principle is under attack from the rise of religious extremism and intolerance in our society. As some politicians openly challenge secularism and promote divisive agendas, this committee will examine its importance and relevance in our times.
