

REPORT ON CHHAU DANCE RENDITION

“Chhau has its own code, repertoire, technique and aesthetic ideals, thus is ranked as a traditional form of Indian folk dance.”

Bal Bharati Public School Noida felt privileged to witness a mesmerising Chhau dance presentation on 28 Apr, 2023 as the greatest exponent of Mayurbhanj Chhau Dance, Shri Loknath Das (Sambhu) and his disciples graced the school. Students of the Middle and Secondary classes sat in rapt attention as the spectacular rendition commenced. Shri Lok Nath(Sambhu) is a renowned Chhau dancer of international repute who has been awarded with prestigious awards like the ‘Best Male Artist Award’, ‘Ustad Bismillah Khan Yuva Puraskar’ from Sangeet Natak Academy and many more.

Highlighting the different form of Chhau dance, Shri Lok Nath(Sambhu) and his disciples presented the Nataraja and the Rukmar presentation that exhibited an array of meanings and experiences. The Sabartoka dance rendition was done by Mr Swapan Mazumdar(TGT-Dance) who captured the attention of the youngsters with his art form and finesse. Their presentation ended with the keen students asking relevant questions regarding fitness and folk dance, thus learning something new in the process.
