BAL SABHA ACTIVITY (2023-24)
PROLIFIC PORTRAITS

Date: 10.05.23 (Wednesday)

Classes: I & II

Theme: Tagore's Jayanti

"In art, the man reveals himself and not his objects." ~ Rabindra Nath Tagore.

Tagore's Jayanti is an annually celebrated cultural festival, around the world in the remembrance of Rabindranath Tagore. He was a Bengali polymath who worked as a poet, writer, playwright, composer, philosopher, social reformer and painter. Every year numerous cultural programs and events are organized on this particular day by various educational institutions as a tribute to Tagore and his works. On this occasion, Bal Bharati Public School, Noida, organized an intra class art activity for classes I and II during Bal Sabha periods.

Mindful Learning

The students were encouraged to think outside the box and come up with unique ideas. They were highly motivated to learn, explore and grow.

All the students enthusiastically participated in the art activity and made beautiful portraits of Rabindranath Tagore using sequins and glitters.

Together We Can

The students, beautifully expressed their talent and creativity. They thoroughly enjoyed the activity and it brought recreation, entertainment and fun all together. Such recreational activities fuel the learning process by stimulating creative thought, improving social and organizational skills, developing interests and talents, and offering the students to do something they really enjoy.

A Different Prospective
