REPORT OF BAL SABHA ACTIVITY (2023-24)

Today a reader, tomorrow a leader – Margaret Fuller

Date: 11/10/23

Class: I & II

THEME: OBSERVING R.K NARAYAN READING WEEK

The National Education Policy 2020 has emphasized reading as a key skill for foundational learning, which aims to improve reading literacy among the students. In an endeavour to nurture reading habits school is celebrating literary week by commemorating great authors and their works. 10 October is remembered in the history of literature as the birthday of the great Indian author R K Narayan. The young learners read a story from the story weaver. The story was based on junk food. The activity was divided in two rounds.

"Story weaver" - In rapt attention

QUALIFYING/PRELIMINARY ROUND

'WORD POWER'-a new literary game

Students were shown a story from the story weaver based on Junk Food. After that a few reading cards were displayed by the teacher. Students picked a card and thought about the possible sentences and selected the best one and spoke about it. After paying attention to all the students, teachers of each section listed the names of best three students from their class.

FINAL ROUND

In the final round, all the selected three participants from every section of classes one and two were assessed by the judges. The evaluation was based on these parameters: confidence, pronunciation, fluency, voice modulation.

Reflecting on the chosen words

Following table highlights the result:

SNO.	NAME OF THE STUDENT	CLASS AND SECTION
Class I
1.	Nia Tripathi	I A
2.	Manvi Singh	I F
3.	Darsh.P.Singh	I F
Class II
1.	Tithi Kapoor	II A
2.	Arushi	II E
3.	Akshita Thukral	II E

LEARNING OUTCOMES

The main purpose of this activity is enhancing vocabulary, creativity and knowledge. Students will also be able to use the new words in their writing skill exercises. They will also become confident while speaking thereby develops confident communication skill.

Report submitted by: Ms. Aiman Syed   Supervision: Ms. Vinaya Pujari

(Headmistress Primary)