On May 13, 2024, a career counseling workshop was conducted for the TGT and PGT teachers of Bal Bharati Public School, Noida. The workshop was led by esteemed resource persons Ms. Anupama Motwani, Ms. Amita Ganjoo, and Ms. Philo Maria Alexander, who shared their expertise on guiding students towards successful career paths.

Ms. Anupama Motwani opened the session by discussing the importance of understanding students' interests and strengths. She emphasized that effective career counseling begins with identifying individual student aptitudes and aligning them with potential career paths. Ms. Motwani highlighted various tools and techniques for assessing student interests and providing personalized guidance that can help them make informed decisions about their futures.

Following this, Ms. Amita Ganjoo elaborated on the current career opportunities in different fields and streams in India. She stressed the importance of keeping up-to-date with industry trends and job market demands. Ms. Ganjoo encouraged teachers to help students explore a wide range of career options, from traditional fields like engineering and medicine to emerging areas such as data science and digital marketing. She also discussed the significance of vocational training and skill development programs in enhancing students' employability.

Ms. Philo Maria Alexander concluded the workshop by discussing the process of choosing a stream, a subject, and then a college. She advised teachers on how to guide students in making informed decisions based on their interests, strengths, and career aspirations. She stressed the importance of helping students understand the relevance of their chosen paths and the steps necessary to achieve their goals.

The teachers found the workshop highly informative and practical. They appreciated the comprehensive approach and interactive sessions, which equipped them with the skills to better counsel their students on career choices. The workshop underscored the critical role of teachers in shaping students' futures by providing them with the necessary guidance and support.
