Hackathon 1.0

Heartiest Congratulations!

I offer my heartfelt apologies for this belated congratulatory note. Amidst my busy schedule, I missed sending this note.

I congratulate the entire staff of BBPS, Noida on the phenomenal success of Bal Bharati Hackathon 1.0, hosted by the school. This extraordinary event set a benchmark for innovation, collaboration, and excellence, reflecting the remarkable efforts put forth by each one of you.

The Hackathon journey—from the unveiling of challenging problem statements to the triumphant closing ceremony—was a resounding success because of the collaborative spirit and expertise. The guidance and support extended by the IT Dept to our young innovators truly exemplifies the spirit of Bal Bharati Public School, Noida.

The relentless dedication, creative inputs, and seamless coordination not only made this event a grand success but also brought laurels to our school. The recognition of four of our teams as winners and the prestigious "Best Use of Technology" award was a testament to the unwavering commitment of the IT Dept. to nurture talent and foster innovation among our students.

I extend my heartfelt gratitude and appreciation to the IT Department for their technological brilliance, the Visual and Performing Arts Department for their creativity and aesthetic contributions, and all other staff members who played a pivotal role in ensuring the success of this landmark event.

Together, you have set an inspiring precedent for future endeavors.

Congratulations once again for your stellar efforts and achievements. I would also like to applaud the leadership team (VPL & HMs) who continue to strive for excellence and innovation, keeping the spirit of Bal Bharati shining bright.

Best regards,
