

Imparting real skills for the real world.

Vocational education creates an understanding of different career options, the importance of life-long learning, and the dignity of labour. We have integrated it in our curriculum from Class VI onwards, fostering key employability skills among our students. We have done this through industry partnerships for internships, and by introducing modules on Communication, Self-Management, Digital Technologies, Entrepreneurship, Financial Literacy, Digital Citizenship, and more.

