

YOUNG POET SHINES! VAISHNAVI PANDEY'S POEM "MY LIBRARY" PUBLISHED IN READERS' CLUB BULLETIN

We are thrilled to share that Vaishnavi Pandey of Class IV has had her poem, "My Library," published in the November–December 2024 issue of the Readers' Club Bulletin, National Book Trust! This remarkable achievement not only showcases her creative flair but also reflects her deep love for literature. Adding to this wonderful milestone, Vaishnavi has been awarded an honorarium of ₹1000 for her published work- an inspiring recognition of her talent!

At Bal Bharati Public School, we take pride in fostering young writers by nurturing their imagination and honing their writing skills. Vaishnavi's success is a testament to our commitment to encouraging literary excellence among our students. The world awaits more of our students' beautiful words.

My Library

My library is the best,
It has so many books,
All the genres comedy and horror.
As humour books make us laugh,
Horror leaves us electrified
When we read, the time flies.
It gives us knowledge,
And helps us thrive.

We can read our favourite book,
Sitting in the cosy corner of a library.
We can also carry a book home,
Borrowing it from the librarian ma'am.
